DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114.

Response to Amendment

2. Applicant's amendment filed May 17, 2005, has been entered. Claim 1 has been amended as requested. Claims 2-21 and 27-31 are cancelled. Thus, the pending claims are 1 and 22-26.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

- 3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:
 - The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.
- 4. Claims 1 and 22-26 stand rejected under 35 USC 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement, as set forth in the previous Office Actions.

Applicant has amended claim 1 in an attempt to overcome said 112 rejection by deleting the word "substantially." However, as argued in the Advisory Action of March 16, 2005, the new matter rejection was not based solely upon the presence of the word "substantially," but rather the general negative limitation of being "free of polypropylene" since the specification merely teaches the present copolymers are advantageous over polypropylene. Additionally, as argued in the Interview of June 14, 2005, it is suggested that applicant amend the claim to positively exclude the presence of polypropylene rather than employing the negative limitation which is not supported by the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102/103

- 5. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
- 6. Claims 1 and 22-26 stand rejected under 35 USC 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 USC 103(a) as being obvious over the cited Peoples patent for the reasons of record.

Response to Arguments

- 7. Applicant's arguments filed with the amendment have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.
- 8. Applicant has not submitted any new response since the Interview of June 14, 2005, as such, the arguments set forth herein merely reiterate those discussed at said Interview.
- 9. Specifically, it was noted that the Peoples recitation at col. 5, lines 12-24 appeared to not explicitly teach a primary backing as previously argued in the prosecution. However, the reference clearly teaches embodiments of the invention that included a tufted primary backing, an optional precoat layer, a thermoplastic barrier coating, and a secondary backing pad. Note the abstract, col. 1, lines 6-17, col. 4, lines 26-45, and col. 9, line 51-col. 56. Although Peoples teaches the precoat is preferred, said preference is not equivalent to a requirement of the presence of said precoat (i.e., optional). Therefore, applicant's arguments are found unpersuasive and the above rejection is hereby maintained.
